HISTORY

Three important periods have carried out in the life of this building, corresponding to three family «dynasties».

First, the Trabouriech lineage which built a relay station, in 1761 named the «Auberge Aux Armes de France», and long nicknamed «Alexander», the first name of the founder.

From 1888 until 1920, the second line, that of the Dartigues, made known Hôtel de France outside the department making it look as it is today.

In 1926 the third generation of owners begins with the DAGUIN that restores prestige to the house. ANDRE DAGUIN makes himself, the Hôtel de France, Gers and Gascony gastronomy known all over the world. He assisted a large panel of food and beverage actors to fit in local, national and international markets.

Since 2009, Lucie and Vincent CASASSUS, took up the challenge of welcoming visitors with style in one of the most beautiful homes of the Gers and wear high and proud the colors and fragrances of the Gascony and Gers. It is now up to the CASASSUS family to bring the property to today visitor's expectation.

«The chef Vincent, who has worked in several Michelin-starred restaurants. His wife, Lucie, well accustomed to English. The pastry chef, Fabien, trained in the finest restaurants, from Gimont to New York, his wife Anna welcomes you at the desk... Bruno, in the dining room (Meilleur Ouvrier de France du Service et des Arts de la Table) and Papi Jacques, the cuisine joker ! The Hôtel de France is a family story, which works with its team to insure you have the best moments during your visit.»

THE SIGHTS OF THE CITY

The historic capital of Gascony, Auch is the former residence of the princes of the Church and the Counts of Armagnac.

In the 16th century, the Gascon invaders gave their name to the old province Roman: Vasconia, future Gascony, which became the seat archiepiscopal. It was during the 18th century that the city transformed, beautified and acquired its city aspect thanks to the Intendant d'Etigny.

Auch walks you through the centuries to reveal throughout its monuments, the memory of a province. City of art, the talent of its masterminds is inscribed at all times. You will admire the eye sculpted by Jaume Plensa, blinking under the brilliance of stained glass windows by Arnaud de Moles....

Not to be missed... The Cathedral of Saint Mary, the monumental stairs, "pousteries" typical narrow and steep streets...
